Joe is a sought after tutor, judge and demonstrator of many years' experience. His training as a commercial artist at East Sydney Technical College (now National Art School) and career running a mobile art gallery provides him with a wealth of knowledge to pass onto his students.

Painting full time since 1984, he works in a variety of mediums. Although he is well known for his Impressionistic oils of landscapes, portraits and figures, Joe is passionate about developing the ability to draw. A Fellow and life member of the Royal Art Society, Joe has had numerous solo exhibitions, as well as being exhibited in Cromwell's Art Prize 2004, the Archibald Salon de Refuses 2002 and 2008 and recently in Bathurst Regional Gallery. He is also twice winner of the Landscape Prize in the North Sydney Art Prize. Joe was on the teaching staff at the Royal Art Society of N.S.W. for over 10 years and is a tutor at the Mitchell College School of Arts at Bathurst.

Joe is passionate about drawing, so be prepared for a day of drawing with passion. The workshop will start with an introduction to drawing with the humble pencil and willow charcoal, discovering the "magic of the line" as well as creating the illusion of depth using tone and perspective.

Then comes the fun part - students will explore the different effects of using the wandering, loose line of the pen, creating texture and tone. The sparkle of colour is then added with a watercolour wash. Students will be working from photos provided by the tutor.
