John has been a professional artist since 1971, a principal of the architectural illustration firm Haycraft Duloy since 1974, a lecturer, exhibitor and author of three books of paintings and drawings. He's been a part-time and guest lecturer in the Faculties of Architecture at The University of New South Wales, the University of Newcastle and the Interior Design Faculty of the College of the Arts (Balmain Campus). A collection of his architectural drawings is held in the Mitchell Library, the State Library of New South Wales.

He has travelled and painted extensively in Europe, Asia and Africa, as well as frequent painting trips to the outback of Australia and in his birth-place, New Zealand. John has studied with Australian artist Lloyd Rees, American watercolourist Charles Reid, and Joseph Zbukvic. There have been numerous joint exhibitions and three solo shows of his work. His paintings hang in private collections throughout the world.

John uses an overhead camera feeding to two monitors, so that everyone can see and be seated to follow, instead of having to keep getting up and down. Check out his work at:
